SL-F30

IDX has offered alternatives to the popular Sony L-Series batteries used in a multitude of applications for some time. The market has embraced the SL-F Series as an economical replacement in many applications. The IDX SL-F50 and SL-F70 now welcome another member to the SL-F Series with the introduction of the SL-F30. It, too, is compatible with equipment and accessories using the Sony L-Series batteries. The IDX SL-F30 will address those niche applications calling for lower capacity in confined spaces.
